Congratulations Class of 1986

Commencement 1986

The occasion was one of sorrow and joy. As family and friends of the 1986 graduates watched, another group of Etown students moved into the ranks of the Alumni. They left behind their college days for new and challenging times ahead — but the memories will stay in their minds to guide them.

Alpha Annex

Joey Albanese, a senior chemistry major, and Greg Cooney, a senior music education major, are two of Elizabethtown's more prominent students. Living in Alpha Annex, they are responsible for the campus switchboard between the hours of 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm and 10:00 pm to 7:30 am. In this capacity, they are responsible for answering all of the college's incoming calls, and handling the medical emergencies that occur during their working hours. From their jobs, Joey and Greg have learned how to act in a number of emergency situations, and have benefited from their involvement in public relations. The dedication of these two students is part of the support system that holds Elizabethtown College together.

The Student Senate of 1985-1986 has had numerous accomplishments to its name. Its members have organized the fall orientation program, raised money for the American Cancer Society, coordinated Homecoming '85, managed a sale of used textbooks, and have investigated the long-term project of instituting an Honor Code at Elizabethtown. In addition, the Senate has addressed concerns of the library facility and has increased student input into academic affairs through the formation of the Student Academic Concerns Committee. Senators have also been involved at every level of the planning for Inauguration Week and have felt challenged by the administration of the new President, Dr. Gerhard Spiegler. It has truly been a year of change, a time of progress, and an opportunity to lay the groundwork for future student government associations.

Freshman Orientation Weekend

August 31, 1985 marked a significant change in the life of this years freshmen. This was the day of their arrival at E-town College. After some tearful good-byes to family and friends the students quickly became a part of college life with the many scheduled events that made the time pass oh-so-quickly. During the first day, after attempting to become somewhat "settled" in their new homes, the students met in small groups headed by upperclassmen counselors. These peer sessions helped in making new friends and in learning some of the "secrets" to college living.

Some of the more memorable and enjoyable events of the Orientation Weekend were the Induction Ceremony at the Church of the Brethren, the progressive hike, an E-town tradition, the Allstar Talent Review/Pizza Party, an outdoor movie, "new game activities" at Lake Placida, and of course the All-College Dance.

This weekend, although a time of emotional adjustment, provided fun-filled days of activity that freshmen can look back on with a smile in years to come.

Parents' Weekend

On Saturday morning, September 28, many students could be seen rushing around, cleaning their rooms to make a good impression on . . . you guessed it . . . Mom and Dad. Parents' Weekend was an exciting time for some who hadn't seen their parents for more than four weeks and none too soon for those awaiting extra money and food. Parents spent the day attending lectures, roaming the campus, and eating brunch in the cafeteria. Some students were even treated to a day of shopping or a special dinner out. The time to say good-bye came and relieved parents, seeing that their child was still alive, departed as students sighed knowing that they didn't have to clean their rooms again, or at least, not until the next visit.

Days Gone By

Homecoming 1985

October 12, 1985 was not a typical Saturday morning. Alumni and families came pouring into E-town to reminisce about "Days Gone By" and join present students in the Homecoming celebration.

Midway kicked off the fun with over 35 booths of crafts and food. Blue and white balloons dotted the campus, people laughed as their friends got hit with whipped cream pies, carnations were bought for loved ones, boxer shorts were selling fast, and everyone was eating goodies. Other activities included Department luncheons which reunited more alumni and guest speaker, Edwin Newman, who spoke to the crowd. The fans cheered on the Jays to a 4-1 victory over Trenton. During half-time, Sue Smith was crowned Homecoming Queen followed by Danny Stovell to be crowned E-town's first Homecoming KING at the dance. The highlight of the evening was a special dinner in the decorated gym where everyone was filled with good food and surrounded by friends.

Halloween Weekend

The Halloween Weekend, sponsored by A.P.B., was a big success. People dressed in anything imaginable, roamed the campus. A hall decorating contest and scarecrow making were also part of the extravaganza. For a spooktacular time, one could tour the Haunted House located in Founders on Friday and dance away the night at the Costume Ball on Saturday. During the dance, fellow students participated in a lip sync contest. Saturday also saw many underprivileged children from the Harrisburg area frolicking with their Big Brothers and Big Sisters.

"Harvey"

Elizabethtown College Theater began its 1985-86 season with the enjoyable production of "Harvey" a story about a large white rabbit that can only be seen by the somewhat eccentric Elwood P. Dowd. Elwood's continual references to Harvey, the oversized rabbit, became a great concern to the Dowd family's reputation. Eventually this concern leads both Elwood and Harvey to a psychiatric center known as Chumley's Rest for "help". This results in a number of comical situations and a most intriguing play.

The play also marked Steven E. Shelley's 100th theatrical production as Managing/Technical Director.

Christmas at Etown

Christmas at Etown was full of spirit. There was a hall decorating contest, parties, mistletoe, and a special dinner. The dinner was enjoyed by all — even Santa who found time in his busy schedule to stop by for a visit.

Dance Marathon

The 1986 dance marathon benefitted the MS Foundation. It was held on March 21-22. Madonna's "Into the Groove" served as the theme for the marathon.

S.T.E.P. Presents:

"School Daze"

On February 14 and 15, the 1985-86 Student Team of Entertainers and Performers (S.T.E.P.) presented its sixth annual musical revue entitled "School Daze". Directors, Robin Bittenbender and Beth DeMattia, led a cast of over 50 members in a dazzling show incorporating song, dance, and acting. The 29 numbers epitomized school life in both the past and present, and included such things as Happy Days, Vacation, It's My Party, Mr. Touchdown, I Could Have Danced All Night, and We're Not Gonna Take It. Special dance numbers were Wake Me Up, Hot Lunch, and Let's Get Physical. I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing was performed in sign language. Soloists Lisa Willits, Rosie Altmann, and Annette Davis along with the duet of Lynn Huxtable and Deb Phillips also performed. Special contributions were made by choreography-director Heidi Hackenberger and music director Karen Klingman.

Theme Weekends

Throughout the semesters each dorm takes its turn at sponsoring the weekend activities. Some of the themes chosen this year were Mardi Gras, 50's weekend, the annual Myer Snowball dance and a "cruise" around the world with Founders.
